GUIDELINES Grade 8

I. Creed - Profession of Faith	SADLIER  We Live Our Faith  Chapters:
	Volume I	Volume II
1. Present God's Plan of Salvation History.	7	1, 19
2. There is only one God. There are three Persons in one God: God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. The three Persons in one God is the Blessed Trinity. God has no beginning and no end. Each of the three Divine Persons of the Blessed Trinity gives Himself totally to the others; because they perfectly love each other. They form a communion of Persons.	3	1
3. God reveals to us in Sacred Scripture that there is only one God and He is a Trinity of Persons.	3	1
4. "God is love and in Himself He lives a mystery of personal loving communion. The life that God lives in Himself is personal (Father, Son and Holy Spirit); it is loving (each of the Persons loves the other two); and it is a communion (the three Persons are united in Their common love)" (Pope John Paul II, The Christian Family in the Modern World, #11).	3	1
5. God shows His merciful love by drawing good out of evil.	4, 7
6. The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of Truth and Love. Jesus gives us the Holy Spirit, the third Person of the Blessed Trinity in the Sacrament of Baptism. As "the interior Teacher of Christian prayer," the Holy Spirit teaches us how to pray and to believe, trust and love Jesus. Moreover, in the Sacrament of	6, 14, 15	1, 2, 7, 19, 20, 21, 24, + Pentecost (Seasons and
Confirmation, our friendship with the Holy Spirit is deepened as we learn to recognize His promptings and biddings to follow the will of God. In addition, the Holy Spirit strengthens us to overcome temptations and make right choices as well as to spread and defend the Catholic Faith. (CCC 2681)		Celebrations)
7. We can think of God the Father as our Creator, God the Son as our Teacher and Savior and God the Holy Spirit as our Helper but all three Divine Persons create, teach, save and help together. The Blessed Trinity is a mystery of Faith. A mystery of Faith is a truth revealed by God that we cannot fully understand because of the limits of our minds and the greatness of God. A mystery of faith is reasonable. We can come to know the mysteries of Faith by studying creation, the Bible and what the Church teaches.	1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6	1
8. God is our Father Who loves us and cares for us. The Blessed Trinity created each person to be in communion with Himself. Only we, as human persons, are able to know and love our Creator. We are called to share by knowledge and love, in God's own life. It was for this end that we were created, and this is the fundamental reason for our dignity. We are brought into the family of God through the Sacrament of Baptism. (We respect animals because they are God's creatures but they do not have dignity—they do not have an immortal soul in which to know and love God.) (CCC 426, 356, 301, 759, 375, 2014)	1, 3, 14	1, 19
9. God created everything to share in His wisdom, power and love. Consequently, God made all of creation with perfect order. In creation, we see rocks, plants, and animals that are part of the physical world. Angels are part of the spiritual world and human persons are part of both the physical and spiritual worlds, having a body and an immortal (spiritual) soul. (CCC 295, 299, 362-365)	7	19
10. God the Father, God the Holy Spirit and angels are persons without bodies while human beings are persons with bodies. God the Son, Jesus Christ became a man, and therefore had a human body. (This is called the hypostatic union in which Jesus, a Divine Person with a divine nature took on a human nature). For the human person, it is the body through which we come to express our love and our feelings. (CCC 468, 480-483)	8

11. God created Adam and Eve in His image and likeness. He created Adam and Eve and the whole human race to know, love and serve Him so that we can be united with Him both here and forever in Heaven. Adam and Eve were united with God through sanctifying grace within their souls – a participation in God's Divine Life. (CCC, 362-366, 356-357, 374-376, 1934)	1, 2, 7	1
12. God gave Adam and Eve everything they needed to live with Him forever. But they disobeyed God. (Original Sin) God still loved them and promised that He would send a Savior to reunite us with God. God showed His love to His people by entering into covenants with them.	4, 7	1
13. Jesus is God. Jesus was born as man on the first Christmas as our Savior. (CCC 464, 461, 463, 443-445)	8 + Christmas (Seasons and Celebrations p. 281)	Christmas (Seasons and Celebrations p. 281)
14. Jesus is referred to in Scripture as the Word of God (John 1:1-3). Jesus Christ showed His perfect love for us by dying on the cross and rising from the dead so that our sins could be forgiven and we could be reunited with the Father. Moreover, the sacrifice of Christ on the cross for our sins opened the gates of Heaven and made it possible for those who die in God's grace and friendship to live forever with Him in the perfect joy of Heaven.	5, 8, 11, 12	19 + Triduums (Seasons and Celebrations p. 289)
15. Mary's "yes" to God to be the Mother of Jesus made our salvation possible. Since Mary is the Mother of Jesus and Jesus is God, we rightly call Mary the Mother of God. (CCC 494-495, 497, 509, 485, 723)	7, 23	8, 24
16. Jesus inaugurated the Church, the family of God by preaching the Good News, instituting the seven sacraments and establishing the Church with a structure. The structure consisted of the Twelve Apostles with Peter as the head. (CCC 763-766, 759, 1114)	9, 11, 13, 14, 15, 20	23
17. Jesus became man to show us who we are and how to act through His three offices of priest, prophet and king. Jesus, the greatest Prophet was the teacher of God's truth. As Priest, He offered Himself in loving sacrifice to the Father. As King, He came to begin the Kingdom of God upon earth, making Himself the servant of all, for He came "not to be served but to serve" (Matthew 20:28). (CCC 783-786, 941-943, 1591, 1119)	9	1, 3, 20
18. Jesus suffered, died on the cross and rose on Easter Sunday for our redemption. Jesus did this to save us from the power of sin and death and to re-unite us with Himself. (CCC 612, 616, 619, 629, 639-640, 654)	11, 12 + Triduum p. 289 + Easter p. 293 (Seasons and Celebrations	Triduum p 289 + Easter p. 293 (Seasons and Celebrations
19. Forty days after the Resurrection Jesus ascended to His Father, which we celebrate on the Ascension. Ten days later, Jesus sent God the Holy Spirit on Pentecost to remain with us until the end of time. (CCC 665, 731-732)	12 + Ascension p. 297 (Seasons and Celebrations)	Pentecost p. 297 (Seasons & Celebrations
20. At Pentecost the Holy Spirit strengthened the Apostles to imitate Christ. The Holy Spirit empowered them to administer the Sacraments, to teach what Jesus had taught them and to lead the Church. Pentecost is when we celebrate the birth of the Catholic Church. (CCC 767, 747, 771-773, 1585, 780, 1076)	6, 12, 15	7, 19, 21, 24, + Pentecost p. 297 (Seasons & Celebrations
21. The Holy Spirit has been present throughout all of history: The Holy Spirit inspired the Old Testament prophets; through the power of the Holy Spirit Mary conceived Jesus; the Holy Spirit descended upon Jesus in the form of a dove at His Baptism; the Holy Spirit came to the Apostles on Pentecost to strengthen them supernaturally to manifest publicly the Catholic Church. This included preaching the Gospel, celebrating the Sacraments and governing the people in the practice of the Faith. Moreover, the Holy Spirit continues to be present in the Church today. (CCC 743-747)	6	7, 19, 21, 24, + Pentecost p. 297 (Seasons & Celebrations

22. Jesus chose Peter as the leader of His Church and made him the first Pope.	6, 11, 15, 20	23
Furthermore, Jesus gave to the Apostles the power to bring God's mercy and forgiveness to all Christians. This power has been passed on to the priests and bishops whom God has called and will continue to call to carry on Christ's work of bringing people closer to God. (CCC 890-892)
23. The Holy Spirit guides the shepherds of the Church so that they teach the truth as	6	23 given to the Apostles by Jesus Christ. In addition, the Holy Spirit protects the Pope and the Church from error when, as the leader of the Church, he defines doctrines (Church teachings) on faith and morals. Furthermore, the Holy Spirit protects the teachings of all the other bishops when they are teaching in union with the Pope.
(CCC 888-892, 861-862)
24. Jesus commissioned the Apostles to hand on the teachings that He had given them	12, 15, 20 +	21 + Prayers
while He was with them. The teachings of Jesus are summarized in the Apostles'	Prayers and	and Practices Creed. The Church that Jesus founded has four marks or defining characteristics,	Practices pp.	pp. 305-6) which are expressed in the Nicene Creed: the Church is one, holy, catholic, and	305-6) apostolic. (CCC 811-812, 880-887)
25. Some will die in God's friendship but with their souls not yet ready to be with	12
God because of the need for final cleansing of venial sins. Before they go to Heaven, they first go to Purgatory to be purified of any unconfessed venial sins and its effects.
(CCC 1054, 1030-1032) (Mt 5:22, 29, 10:28; 13:42, Mk 9:43-48)
26. We will all die someday. Therefore, we need to think about the Four Last Things:
Death, Judgment, Heaven and Hell. (CCC 1059, 1021-1029, 1038-1041) At death, our souls leave our bodies. After we die we will be judged individually (Particular Judgment). If we have loved God in this life, we will be ready to love God forever.
God will welcome us into Heaven, where we will be in complete communion with Him. (CCC 1053)
27. If a person has not loved God in this life and dies with mortal sin on his soul, he	12 will not want to be with God. A soul in this state is in a place called Hell, which lasts forever. Hell is the "unquenchable fire," eternal punishment, and painful torment. (CCC 1056-1057, 1033-1037)
28. At the General Judgment, when Jesus Christ comes to judge the living and the dead, our bodies will be restored to us in the form of a glorified body (resurrection of the body).

II. Sacraments – Celebration of the Christian Mystery

1. Our Lord Jesus Christ is High Priest and unique mediator between God and man.	13	20, 22 Priests and bishops act in the person of Christ (in persona Christi) and give to us the sacraments. (CCC 1548)
2. Due to the effects of original sin, we have a weakened human nature (an inclination	1, 13	1 toward sin) and therefore we need sanctifying grace (a participation in God's Divine Life) to know, love and serve God. Sanctifying grace is received in the sacraments.
(CCC 1116-117, 1129, 1263-1264)
3. The seven sacraments are efficacious signs instituted by Christ and entrusted to the	13	1, 21, 22
Church, by which divine life is given to us. We need all seven of the Sacraments.
(CCC 1114-1116, 1123, 1127, 1129-1134)
4. The sacraments are our deepest encounters with Jesus on earth. Through the	13	22 sacraments we have communion with Jesus – we are united with Him.

5. The ministerial priesthood (ordained bishops and priests) and the common priesthood of the faithful participate, each its own way, in the priesthood of Christ. However, they	14, 18	23 differ essentially. Through the celebration of the Sacraments, priests exercise their ministerial priesthood in service to the laity. The common priesthood of the faithful is exercised by a life of Faith, Hope and Charity, responding to the interior promptings of the Holy Spirit. (CCC 1547)	10.10
6. The source of the Sacraments is Jesus love for the Father and us, which He showed by	12, 13
His death on the Cross. Jesus' suffering (passion), Death, Resurrection from the dead and Ascension into Heaven, that is called the Paschal Mystery, destroyed our death and restored our life. (CCC 1067).
7. The sacraments are ordinarily celebrated in a church where the family of God comes together as a community to worship Him. The church is a house of God and is sacred especially because Jesus is offered on the altar in the sacrifice of the Mass and is present in the tabernacle. (CCC 1181, 832, 1379)	10 14	21 22
8. "The seven Sacraments touch all the stages and all the important moments of	13, 14	21, 22
Christian life. There is thus a certain resemblance between the stages of natural life and the stages of the spiritual life". "The purpose of the Sacraments is to sanctify us, to build up the Body of Christ and, finally, to give worship to God". In the Sacrament of Baptism, we are called to participate in Christ's mission as priest, prophet and king. In Confirmation we receive and are strengthened by the Holy Snimit so that we can appead and defend the Catholic Faith in all that we say and Spirit so that we can spread and defend the Catholic Faith in all that we say and

Sacraments of Initiation – New life in Christ
A. Through the Sacrament of Baptis m, we are freed from sin and reborn as a Child of	14, 20	21, 22
God, a member of the Church, the Family of God and sharers in her mission. (CCC	14, 20	21, 22 1213-1284, 1655)
1. Through Baptism we receive:
a. Cleansing from original sin and forgiveness of all personal sin committed before Baptism.
b. Sanctifying grace (a share in the life of the Blessed Trinity), which makes us children of God, members of the Body of Christ, and temples of the Holy Spirit and co-heirs of the Kingdom.
c. An indelible mark on our souls (can never be repeated or removed). The Gifts necessary to live as children of God. (CCC 1265-1266) (three Theological Virtues - CCC 1813, seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit - CCC 1831) (effects: CCC 1262-1274, 1279-80)
2. Through Baptism, we receive the three Theological Virtues of Faith, Hope and Charity. These virtues come from God and lead us back to Him. The theological virtues are the foundation of the Christian moral life. We also receive the seven supernatural Gifts of the Holy Spirit, which are wisdom, understanding, right counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord. These supernatural gifts are given for personal growth in holiness and to sustain the moral life. (CCC 1265-1266, 1812-1813, 1830-1831)
3. The symbols of Baptism are: baptism with water, anointing with oil of catechumens and chrism, the clothing of the white garment and the reception of the candle lit from the Easter candle. (CCC 1234-1245)
4. The Church gives us the rite of Baptism and its symbols: The students should be taught the Rite of Baptism and the symbols used as found in the Sacramentary.
(symbols: CCC 1234-1245)
B. Through the Sacrament of Confirmation , we deepen our relationship with the Holy	15	20, 22 Spirit and He strengthens us to be a true witness of Jesus Christ. Confirmation is necessary for the completion of Baptismal grace. As a disciple of Our Lord, we are obliged to share the Faith by word and deed. (CCC 683-686, 1285-1321)
1. Confirmation:
<ul> <li>Brings an increase and deepening of baptismal grace</li> </ul>
• Gives the Holy Spirit in order to root us more deeply in the divine filiation
<ul> <li>Incorporates us more firmly into Christ</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>Strengthens our bond with the Church</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>Associates us more closely with her mission</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>Helps us bear witness to the Christian faith in words accompanied by deeds</li> </ul>

C. Through the Sacrament of the Eucharist we receive the Body and Blood of Christ,	11, 16 + The	22 with His soul and His Divinity. Holy Communion increases the communicant's union	Mass p. 309 with the Lord, forgives his venial sins, and preserves him from grave sin. Jesus Christ is to be honored with the worship of adoration. (CCC 1413, 1416, 1418)
1. Jesus told us unless we eat of His Body and drink of His Blood we shall not have eternal life. He gave us His Body and Blood at the Last Supper when He commanded the Twelve Apostles to celebrate this memorial until His return.(John 6:51ff; CCC 1406, 1337)
2. The Eucharist is the Church's highest prayer. (CCC 1407)		4, 20
3. Know that even though the bread (host) and wine looks like ordinary bread and	11, 16 + The	10, 22 wine after the consecration, it is really Jesus' Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity. He is	Mass p. 309	10, 22 really there. Holy Eucharist is the Bread of Life, that is, the living risen Lord.	141435 p. 505
(Transubstantiation) (CCC 1413)
4. The Sacrifice of the Mass continues (makes present) Jesus' Sacrifice of the Cross; Jesus is offered on the altar again but without shedding His Blood. Together with the priest, we offer Jesus to the Father, the most perfect gift we can ever give to God. We also offer our obedience and service to the Father like Jesus. (CCC 1362, 1364)
5. The Eucharist is the memorial of Christ's Passover, that is, of the work of salvation accomplished by the life, death, resurrection of Christ, the one historical event made present by the liturgical action. (CCC 1409)
6. In the celebration of the Eucharist, Jesus acts through the priest and is truly present (Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity). (CCC 1410, 1413)
7. Only a bishop and a priest through the power of the Holy Spirit can consecrate bread and wine so that it becomes the Body and the Blood of Jesus. (CCC 1120)
8. What is necessary to receive the Eucharist?
• Must be free from grave (mortal) sin (CCC 1385, 1415)
<ul> <li>Must observe the fast required by the Church, specifically not to eat or drink</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>anything other than water for one hour before Holy Communion (CCC 1387)</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>Bodily demeanor (gestures, clothing) ought to convey the respect, solemnity, and</li> </ul> joy of this moment. (CCC 1387)
9. Jesus addresses an invitation to us, urging us to receive Him in the sacrament of the Eucharist. To respond to this invitation we must prepare ourselves for so great and so holy a moment. Before Mass when we kneel down in the pew, it is good to:
• close our eyes and remember that Jesus is truly present in the tabernacle.
<ul> <li>ask the Holy Spirit to help us to pray, letting go of all distractions and plans.</li> </ul>
• pray, slowly, an Our Father or another prayer to prepare for Mass. (CCC 1385, 2670)
10. Jesus is present in the Church, even after Mass, because the consecrated hosts are kept in the tabernacle. We may be with Jesus and adore Him in the church even outside of Mass. (CCC 1377-1381)
11. The way in which we receive Our Lord shows the deep respect and depth of our belief that this is Jesus, truly present in the Eucharist. (CCC 1061-1065) This should include:
Being recollected and focusing on Our Lord  A second of the least
• In approaching Jesus, we reverence Him with a bow of the head
• Receiving Him reverently either on our hand, which should form a throne or on
• the tongue
<ul> <li>Saying the word Amen (I believe) in response to the priest saying "The Body of Christ"</li> </ul> 12. Once we receive Jesus in Holy Communion, we kneel down in prayer and thanksgiving. We may close our eyes to give Him our full attention. We silently pray to Him and He listens. Jesus is pleased when we share our life with Him. (CCC 2637)

Sacrament of Healing – Jesus, Physician of our Souls and Bodies	1.5	4.5.55
A. Through the Sacrament of Reconciliation, God forgives our sins and increases our	17	1, 2, 22 spiritual strength. Our peace is restored in relationship with God, the Christian community, and one's self. (CCC 1420-1498) Jesus gives the apostles the power to forgive sins.
1. The spiritual effects of the Sacrament of Penance are:
reconciliation with God by the which the penitent recovers grace reconciliation with the Church remission of the eternal punishment incurred by mortal sins remission, at least in part, of temporal punishments resulting from sin peace and serenity of conscience, and spiritual consolation an increase of spiritual strength for the Christian battle. (CCC 1496)
2. Sin is primarily turning away from God (an offense against God) that damages our relationship with Him, and at the same time, damages the Church and our relationship with others (CCC 1440, 1849-1852, 1443-1445) (2 Cor 5: 18-21)
3. There is mortal (deadly) and venial sin. Mortal sin is a serious disobedience to God's laws of love that destroys the Divine Life of God in the soul (loss of sanctifying grace).
It results in the loss of charity and constitutes a break in our relationship with God. For a sin to be mortal, three conditions must be present: serious matter, full knowledge of the evil act, and full consent of the will. Mortal sin completely separates us from God.
Venial sin is breaking a commandment in a less serious matter that wounds our relationship with Him. (CCC 1855, 1857, 1855-1864, 1455-1458).
4. The guaranteed way to be reconciled with God after committing a mortal sin is the Sacrament of Reconciliation. When we are sorry and seek forgiveness through the Sacrament of Reconciliation, God forgives us. Contrition is sorrow for sin and a firm commitment not to sin again. (CCC 1496-1497, 1451, 1456)
5. A priest can never reveal what is heard in confession. There is no exception. This is called the sacramental seal of Confession. (CCC 1467)
6. Five steps to make a good confession: (CCC 1491-94)		1, 2
1) Pray to the Holy Spirit to help me know my sins (examination of conscience) (CCC 1448, 1454)
2) Pray for the grace to be sorry for my sins (CCC 1448, 1451)
3) Make up my mind not to sin again (contrition) (CCC 1448, 1451) Contrition involves sorrow for sin and firm purpose to change.
4) Go to confession
a) Make the Sign of the Cross.
b) Tell my sins to the priest. (Each mortal sin must be confessed – trying to remember the number of times the sin was committed). (CCC 1448, 1456, 1495)
c) Listen to the guidance of the priest to help me break sinful habits.
d) Pray the Act of Contrition (with true sorrow and a firm purpose to change).
e) Prayerfully listen to the words of absolution:
God, the Father of mercies, through the death and the resurrection of His Son has reconciled the world to Himself and sent the Holy Spirit among us for the forgiveness of sins; through the ministry of the Church may God give you pardon and peace, and I absolve you from your sins in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen. (CCC 1449)
5) After leaving the confessional, pray or do the penance the priest gives you and thank God for forgiving your sins. The penance given by the priest is an act (such as a prayer or an act of charity) whereby the sinner makes amends for sin, especially in reparation (to show sorrow for) to God for offenses against Him. (CCC 1459-1460)
7. Understand that the Sacrament of Confession / Reconciliation is important for preparing to receive the other sacraments, especially the Eucharist. We must be in the state of grace to receive the Holy Eucharist. Mother Church encourages us to frequent the Sacrament of Confession on a monthly basis. (CCC 1415, 1421, 1468-1470)
8. Confession of venial sins is strongly recommended by the Church.
1) The regular confession of our venial sins helps us
2) form our conscience
3) fight against evil tendencies and break sinful habits
4) allows Christ to heal the wounds of our sins
5) helps us to progress in the life of the Spirit (CCC 1457-1458)

B. Through the Anointing of the Sic k, the conferral of a special grace is given to those	17	22 who are seriously ill, old, and/or close to death. Its full celebration includes Reconciliation, Anointing and Eucharist. The name "Viaticum" is given to the Eucharist for those who are about to leave this life, so that Jesus is with them as they pass from this world to the Father. (CCC 1420-21, 1499-1532)
1. The celebration of the Anointing of the Sick consists essentially in the anointing of the forehead and hands of the sick person, the anointing being accompanied by the liturgical prayer of the celebrant asking for the special grace of the Sacrament. (CCC 1531)
2. The special grace of the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick has as its effects:
a) the uniting of the sick person to the passion of Christ for his own good and that of the whole Church (We are able to offer up our sufferings in union with Christ)
b) the strengthening, peace and courage to endure in a Christian manner the sufferings of illness or old age
c) the forgiveness of sins, if the sick person was not able to obtain it through the Sacrament of Penance
d) the restoration of health, if it is conducive to the salvation of souls
e) the preparation for passing over to eternal life (CCC 1532)
3. The Anointing of the Sick gives the person the strength to be sorry for sin and to resist temptation so that our friendship with God can be stronger now and at the moment of death.
Sacraments of Service – Directed towards the salvation of others	18, 19, 2	22, 23
A. Through the Sacrament of Holy Orders , bishops, priests and deacons continue the mission entrusted by Jesus Christ to His Apostles until the end of time. There are three degrees: bishop, priest and deacon. (CCC 1533-1600) confers an indelible spiritual mark (like Baptism and Confirmation) bishops are successors of the Apostles; they lead the Church; they are to teach the Faith and administer the sacraments; they ordain priests and deacons to help them deacons are ordained for tasks of service; they are never able to administer the sacraments of Confirmation, Eucharist, Reconciliation, or Holy Orders (CCC 1596
1. "The whole Church is a priestly people. Through Baptism all the faithful share in 23 the priesthood of Christ. This participation is called the 'common priesthood of the faithful" (CCC 1591).
2. "The ministerial priesthood differs in essence from the common priesthood of the faithful because it confers a sacred power for the service of the faithful. The ordained ministers exercise their service for the People of God by teaching, by divine worship and pastoral governance." (CCC 1592).
3. The bishop receives the fullness of the Sacrament of Holy Orders, which integrates him into the Episcopal college and makes him the visible head of the particular Church entrusted to him. As successors of the Apostles and members of the college, the bishops share in the apostolic responsibility and mission of the whole Church under the authority of the Pope, successor of St. Peter. (CCC 1594)
4. The Pope and the bishops who are in communion with him make up the Magisterium.		7
The Magisterium is the living, teaching office of the Church, whose task it is to give as authentic interpretation of the word of God, whether in its written form (Sacred Scripture), or in the form of Tradition. The Magisterium ensures the Church's fidelity to the teaching of the Apostles in matters of faith and morals. (CCC 85, 890, 2033, 888, 892)

B. The Sacrament of Matrimony is a covenant between one man and one woman for a	18	22 lifetime to show their love for one another, to have children, and to be a witness of the union of Christ and the Church. Just as we are made in the image and likeness of God, so the family is an image and likeness of the Family of God, the Church. (CCC 1533-1535, 1601-1666)
The married couple forms "the intimate partnership of life and love established by the Creator and governed by His laws. It is rooted in their irrevocable personal consent.
Both spouses gives themselves definitely and totally to one another
The covenant they freely contracted imposes on the spouses the obligation to preserve it as unique and indissoluble.
The life-long covenant, which spouses have freely entered into, entails faithful love. (CCC 2364, 2397) Married couples should regard it as their proper mission to transmit human life and to educate their children; they should realize that they are thereby cooperating with the love of God the Creator. (CCC 2367)
C. The dedicated single life is the vocation by which God calls some people to serve	19	23 others by being single and/or living in community. These people live out the unfolding of baptismal grace. People called to this life of service may choose to be a sister, nun, brother, monk, hermit, consecrated virgin, or a single person. (CCC 1618-1620)

Conscience
1. God created us with an internal guide to help us determine which actions are good and which actions are bad. This is known as our conscience. The voice of conscience calls us "to	17	1, 2 love and to do what is good and avoid what is evil." Our conscience must be properly formed or taught. To form our conscience we must look to the Word of God and to the knowledge and practice of the Ten Commandments. (CCC 1776, 37, 1783-1785)
Questions to ask before making a decision:
<ul> <li>Would this decision go against the Ten Commandments?</li> </ul>
• Will the results of this decision be good for me, my family, my friends?
Will my decision hurt anyone?
Would I make the same decision if my parents were involved?
How would Jesus guide me in this decision?
2. God gave us a conscience so that we could know right from wrong according to the law	17	1, 2, 3 written on our heart. The law written on our heart is called the natural law. (The natural law	- /	1, 2, 5 is principally expressed in the Ten Commandments) (CCC 1955-1956).
3. In addition, God has given us free will and the dignity of choice. We seek to live by God's	7, 9	1, 3 law because of God's love for us in which He warns us what is necessary to bring us real	,,,,	-, - happiness. Furthermore, Jesus gave us a higher calling, that of living the Beatitudes. Jesus always gives us the grace we need to meet His commands.
4. Even though we basically know in our hearts what is right and wrong, it is hard to avoid	17	2 what is wrong and do what is right. This is why God teaches us about right and wrong through the Bible, the Church, and personal prayer. This is why it is important for us to listen to God in prayer and let God help us to make up our mind what to do (conscience)
It is important to examine our conscience and pray a sincere Act of Contrition every night.
In examining our conscience, we ask ourselves:
What did I do today that pleased God?
Did I listen to and obey my parents and teachers?
Was I kind to everyone or how was I selfish?
Pick one thing that you will ask Jesus to help you to avoid.
5. In desiring to follow Christ, we are called to live according to the Beatitudes. Through the	9	3 Beatitudes, we become poor in spirit, recognizing that God is the source of all that we are and have. Consequently, we want to place Him first in our lives. We seek to be generous with all the gifts God has given us as well as respecting other people's property (Stewardship). (CCC 1716-1717)
6. God has given us the Theological Virtues, the Moral Virtues and the Gifts of the Holy	20	4, 5, 6,
Spirit to live our dignity as children of God. The Theological Virtues lead us to believe and		20 hope in God and love Him and our neighbor. The virtue of chastity helps us freely love and respect others as images of God. It requires self-mastery and self-discipline. God calls us to the practice of chastity so that we can imitate the purity of Christ. The Holy Spirit dwelling in our hearts makes it possible to imitate Christ. (CCC 1814, 1817, 1822).
7. The moral virtues govern our actions to practice the good toward our neighbor. Modesty		6 is a moral virtue that guides how one respects the dignity of other persons. (CCC 1804, 2522, 2337-2345)		7.6
8. "Sexuality affects all aspects of the human person in the unity of his body and soul." God		5, 6 gave us the Sixth Commandment to guide us in our actions and the Ninth Commandment to guide us in our thoughts and desires. We should protect our mind by guarding the five senses to prevent images that could lead to sin. (CCC 2332)	1	5.6
9. God surrounds the use of our sexuality with laws to ensure their rightful use. It is		5,6 important to use our sexuality according to the will of God, who created and loves our nature. The pleasures and joys of human sexuality are reserved for marriage because, in this Sacrament, the spouses are united before God in a life-long commitment of self-giving love.
God provides the spouses with the graces they need to be faithful to this commitment.

10. Due to the effects of original sin, we can be tempted to use others as objects for pleasure.		5, 6
Any relations before marriage lowers our perception of our dignity as a person is giving nimself/herself to another without any lasting commitment before God. This leads to guilt, depression, misery, spiritual blindness, selfishness, and unwanted pregnancies.
11. The proper integration of sexuality within the person is called chastity, which is a virtue		5, 6 or good habit. The virtue of chastity is about saying "yes" to God. We desire to follow His plan for authentic love and personal dignity by treating each person as a child of God with complete respect. Chastity requires that we practice self-denial and self-control by submitting any sexual desires to love and respect towards another person. (CCC 2331-2347)
12. The virtue of chastity blossoms in friendship." The important question at this time is "Do		5 have good friends" and "What is good for this friend?" Those questions replace the question: How far can I go before it is very serious sin that affects my emotional, spiritual and physical health?" (CCC 2347)
14. Temptations are the enticement to sin from the devil, from what we see and hear, or		6 nner desires from within us. Temptations are not sin unless we give into these desires.
When we experience temptations of any kind, we should pray to God to help us overcome hem. He will give us the grace that we need. To keep ourselves pure and chaste, we must:
practice self-control so we can grow in the virtue of temperance, be faithful to daily prayer, use the Sacrament of Confession regularly, enjoy hobbies, go in groups of friends to different events and turn to your parents or other wise adults for advice. (CCC 2338-2342)
Sin/Choices/Virtue
1. There are good (virtuous) and bad (sinful) choices. Right choices are the way we love	7, 17	1
God, others and ourselves. This is how we grow in holiness. Sinful choices are acts of	,, -,	- selfishness. Sins wound us personally as well as our relationship with God and others.
(CCC 1852-1853, 1849-1850)
2. We commit sin when we are disobedient to God by breaking His laws. We have a	7	1 weakened human nature and a tendency to commit sins because of the effects of original sin.	,	1 Γhat means we fall into sin very easily. We are tempted to sin by others, Satan and by our weakened human nature. (CCC 1264, 1426, 1428, 2848-2849, 2340)
3. The way that we make good and holy choices is through the exercise of virtue. A virtue is	20
a good moral habit. We develop the Cardinal Virtues (moral virtues) of prudence, justice,	20
Fortitude and temperance through education, deliberate acts and perseverance in struggle.
These efforts are purified and elevated by God's grace.
Prudence: Discovering our true good and choosing the right means of achieving it (Simplified definition) making a right judgment
Justice: Giving the proper due to God and neighbor. Being fair Fortitude/Courage: Firmness in the pursuit of good. The courage to do what is right Femperance: Moderating the attraction of the pleasures of the senses that provides palance in the use of created goods. Acting with self discipline or self control (CCC 1803-1809)
1. The virtue of temperance is exercised when young people practice self-control and do not	20
eat or drink too much. Fasting as a form of penance, i.e. giving up desert altogether, further	20 develops the virtue of temperance, which leads to proper self-control and self-mastery. This self-control assists a person to practice chastity, self-control of sexual desires that begin developing in the teen years. "Temperance helps us to treat others with respect and is the foundation of a pure heart." (CCC 1809)
5. The foundation of the Christian life is the Theological Virtues of Faith, Hope and Charity.	20	4, 20
God infused the Theological Virtues into the soul at Baptism. Faith is our belief in God.	20	7, 20
Hone is triisting in God's promises. Charity is loving others as God loves its in the Hope is trusting in God's promises. Charity is loving others as God loves us. "The		1 Theological Virtues dispose Christians to live in a relationship with the Holy Trinity."

Γheological Virtues dispose Christians to live in a relationship with the Holy Trinity." (CCC 1842-1844, 1812-1829)

7. There are two kinds of sin: venial sins and mortal sins. Venial sins are little sins but they	16, 17	1 wound our friendship with Jesus. Most sins are venial sins. Mortal sins are very serious.
They destroy our relationship with Jesus by saying no to Him. We lose the life of God (sanctifying grace within our soul) if we commit a mortal sin. We cannot go to Heaven if there is a mortal sin on our soul. (CCC 1855, 1857-1860) Examples of mortally sinful actions: Serious offenses against God include blasphemy (saying hateful things against God) and failing to attend Sunday Mass due to your own fault. Serious offenses against neighbor include stealing and lying.
8. For a sin to be mortal, three conditions must be present: serious matter, full knowledge of		1
the evil act, and full consent of the will. (CCC 1857-1859, 1861)
9. Venial sin wounds our relationship with God by breaking a commandment in a less		1 serious matter. However, all sin is serious because sin offends God. (CCC 1862-1863) Examples of less sinful actions: Less sinful actions against neighbor include being unkind to someone, not obeying parents immediately, being lazy with homework
10. God has given us everything. We need to show our gratitude to God by respecting and	22	6, 19 taking care of all His gifts. This is what we call stewardship. (CCC 2402, 2408)
11. Farming is the stewardship of the land, plants and animals for the glory of God and the	22	6, 19 service of His holy people. Note: Stewardship is serving under the Lord for the care of all of God's creation. Stewardship is not mastery (thinking I own it and can treat nature as I wish), but a service under the Lord to whom the earth belongs. (CCC 2415-1418, 2402)
Note to Catechist: The heart of Catholic Social Teaching is ultimately to lead people to God.
The Ten Commandments provide the foundation for Catholic Social Teaching.
The ultimate goal of all social work of the Church (which is referred to as the social apostolate) is the spread of the Kingdom of God over the earth, drawing the power for this work from the Eucharist and prayer. "Charity is the soul of this work." CCC 863-864, 2105)
12. The Diocese of La Crosse is committed, in particular, to the orphanage Casa Hogar Juan Pablo II in Lurin, Peru and to the care of the Holy Cross Parish in Santa Cruz, Bolivia.
(Synod Act #184) Project Milk and the Lenten Mite Boxes are an especially important means of providing assistance to the Casa Hogar Juan Pablo II and Holy Cross Parish and are to be faithfully promoted. (Synod Act #188)
Dignity
1. God created each person in His own image and likeness. God knows and loves each	22	1, 2, 3, individual person. The foundation of our dignity is that each person can enter into a personal		18, 19 relationship with God, even entering into communion with Him in receiving the Holy Eucharist. (CCC356-357)
2. Each person is a child of God and must be treated with respect. This includes the way that	22	1, 6
we treat ourselves (self-respect)
3. God willed that man and woman were created with equal dignity but with	19	1, 22, 23 fundamental differences. Furthermore, God created man and woman to be in communion with Himself and with others through friendship. Through Baptism, man and woman enter into this communion with God, and seek to grow in love of God (holiness of life), which is our primary vocation. We share in God's Divine nature through sanctifying grace received in the Sacraments, which further elevates our dignity (2 Peter 1:4). In addition, Christ calls each person to follow Him in a specific vocation: as a married person, as a single person, as a consecrated person or an ordained priest. (CCC 369)
4. Jesus Christ always used His abilities the way God wanted Him to. By imitating Jesus, we	13	22 grow in being the "image and likeness of God." The Sacraments help us to become more like Jesus and to act like Him because the Sacraments give grace. When we use God's gifts with the help of His grace, we grow in dignity and become more like God.
5. By sinning, we lower the perception of our own dignity and the dignity of others.	21	1
5. By sinning, we lower the perception of our own dignity and the dignity of others. Everyone has the basic dignity of being a person, that is, a creature that is able to know and	21	1
5. By sinning, we lower the perception of our own dignity and the dignity of others.	21	1

Vocation
1. Our personal vocation is not mainly what we choose to do but primarily what we have	19	23 been chosen for. God has given each person distinct gifts. We seek to discover the adventure of life, which God has planned for us in order to use these gifts to serve the Church and the world.
2. Christ calls each person to follow Him in a special way as a married person, a dedicated	19	23 single person, a consecrated person, a deacon or an ordained priest. These are the personal vocations by which we respond to live God's primary call, to seek and to love Him,(the vocation to holiness of life). We discover our personal vocation through prayer, role models, the wise guidance of faithful adults and circumstances in life. (CCC 1547-1551, 1601, 1618-1620, 1878-1880)
3. God's plan for each person is called a vocation (calling). God created each person with	19	23 special gifts and talents which are to be used to serve God and others. Loving and helping others brings us joy. Answering God's call to our vocation will bring us peace and joy. We should pray daily to know our vocation. God might call you to be a priest or consecrated person (nun, consecrated virgin, hermit etc.), to get married, or to the single life.
(CCC 898, 873, 825, 871-945, 225, 1702)
4. Young people need to pray each day to know their personal vocation in life, to discover	19
God's call. Discovering one's vocation is not the same thing as planning one's life. This discovery is based on such questions as: "What does God want from me?" and "How does God want me to use the gifts He has given me?" "How is God calling me to serve Him by serving my neighbor?" and "What plan does God have for my life that will bring me the most joy and fulfillment?" The planning and organizing comes after the discovery (discernment) of God's personal call.
The Last Things: Death, Judgment, Heaven and Hell
1. Death is one of the effects of Adam and Eve's sin, not part of God's original plan. After	7 death our soul will come immediately before God, Who will present our lives to us and we will know whether we have really loved God. If God's life in us is strong enough, we will go to Heaven. (CCC 1008, 1021-1023)
2. If our love for God is not perfect enough for Heaven, we will go to Purgatory, a temporary	12 separation from Heaven where a person's love for God is purified.
3. If we have chosen to separate ourselves from God, we will go to Hell. Hell is a place of	2 eternal and separation from God where there is no love of God, no love of neighbor and no love of self.
4. At the General Judgment, when Jesus Christ comes to judge the living and the dead, our bodies will be restored to us in the form of a glorified body (resurrection of the body).

IV. Prayer Life

1. "Prayer is the raising of one's mind and heart to God or the requesting of good things	24	4, 22 from God." Prayer is the living relationship of the children of God with their Father, with His Son Jesus Christ and with the Holy Spirit. We are called to pray every day with our families. Prayer is required of us by the First Commandment (CCC 2559, 2659-2660, 2565, 2615)
2. "Prayer is both a gift of grace and a determined response on our part" God longs	24	22 for us and calls us to respond to His love in prayer everyday. He gives us the strength (grace) to respond to that call. We must develop a prayer life proper to our age level.
As we mature in prayer, we can make use of the different expressions of prayer:
vocal prayer, meditation and contemplative prayer. (CCC 2567, 2559, 2591, 2725)
3. The Holy Spirit teaches us how to pray and helps us to pray with our heart which	24	22
strengthens our relationship with Jesus. (CCC 2650, 2670, 2672, 2657)
4. Prayer is the foundation of a living relationship with God. We can learn about God at	24	22 home and at school but we cannot know Him personally without prayer. (CCC 2565)
5. Daily prayer and living the Christian life are inseparable. Doing the will of God and	24	22 reaching Heaven is only possible through prayer. We cannot forgive enemies, understand suffering and love God above all things without prayer. (CCC 2744-2745, 2757, 2752, 1023-1024)

6. The Bible is the written Word of God and has an important place in Church, but should also be prayerfully read and meditated upon in the classroom and at home. The Gospels are the most important part of the Bible because they tell us about Jesus' life, teaching, and how His death and resurrection saved us from sin and united us to Himself. Class time should be devoted to "Praying with Scripture" to help young people develop a love for God's Word. (CCC 101-104, 125)	2, 5 + Gathering throughout text + Lent p. 285 + Triduum p. 289 (Seasons & Celebration) + Bible Basics p. 310	7, 8, 13 + Gathering throughout text + Lent p. 285 + Triduum p. 289 (Seasons & Celebrations) ; + Bible Basics p. 310
7. The memorization of basic prayers offers an essential support to the life of prayer, yet it is also important to help students savor their meaning. (CCC 2688) Children should be able to recite the following: (new prayers are bolded) Act of Faith; Apostles' Creed; Act of Contrition; Daily Examination of Conscience Hail Holy Queen; Memorare,; Morning Offering; Mysteries of Rosary	Prayers and Practices pp. 305-308	Prayers and Practices pp. 305-308
8. The different expressions of prayer are vocal prayer, meditation and contemplation. (CCC 2700, 2705, 2709)	24	22
9. God hears every prayer that we make and answers every prayer in a way that is best for us even if we do not always understand God's ways. He is always faithful and is with us through all our joys and sorrows in life. (CCC 2610, 2616)	24
10. The Mass is the highest form of prayer. At the Mass, the bread and wine are changed into the Body and Blood of Jesus. The Holy Eucharist is the deepest encounter between God and us on this earth because we are able to literally be in communion with Jesus Christ. (CCC 1374, 1391, 1324-1325, 1407)	16	20 + Ordinary Time (Seasons & Celebrations) p. 301 + The Mass p. 309
11. When we participate in the Mass, we share in the priest's action by offering our obedience and service along with Jesus as a sacrifice to God; this is the best prayer we can offer to God. To offer ourselves with Jesus means to do God's will and to give up anything that keeps us from giving God obedience and service. Jesus Christ shows us His infinite love by giving Himself in the Holy Eucharist. (CCC 1324-1325, 1367, 1369-1370)	16 + The Mass p. 309	20 + Ordinary Time (Seasons & Celebrations) p. 301 + The Mass p. 309
12. We pray what we believe. We need to participate fully in mind and heart in the prayers of the Sunday Mass. Each person is called to actively participate in the Mass by praying and singing. (CCC1071)	The Mass p. 309	The Mass p. 309
13. In order to stay close to Jesus Christ, and to be strengthened to live a life in imitation of Him, we should regularly (monthly if possible) receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation.		2
14. There are four forms of prayer: Adoration (praise and blessing), Contrition (repentance), Thanksgiving (gratitude), and Supplication (asking God for things). This can be memorized simply by the acronym ACTS: adoration, contrition, thanksgiving and supplication. In all prayer, we are lifting up our hearts and minds to God. (CCC 2626-2644)	24	22
15. We know how much Jesus loves us because He allowed Himself to be crucified so that our sins could be forgiven. One way to remind ourselves of His great love is to pray in front of the crucifix. This symbol of love draws us to serve God and our neighbor more lovingly. We want to pray the "Our Father" every day, asking God for all that we need.	13, 24

16. An important way to return Christ's love is to be devoted to His Sacred Heart. The enthronement to the Sacred Heart (for the home or classroom) is bound essentially to the Holy Eucharist, for it aims to bring Christ, truly present on the altars of sacrifice and in the tabernacles of our parish churches, into our homes and classrooms. It aims to link the altar and tabernacle of the parish church with the places of prayer and devotion in the home.
We can enthrone the image of the Sacred Heart of Jesus to signify that Christ is the One who gives inspiration and direction to each member of the household and to students in the classroom. (Contact the Office of Sacred Worship for information on the enthronement to the Sacred Heart.) (Synod Act #12) 17. The enthronement to the Sacred Heart is a single act, but it represents a way of life by which each member of the household is transformed in Christ each day." We have the Holy Spirit dwelling within us who strengthens us in this way of life by teaching us how to pray and guiding us in how to live (CCC 2672).
18. It is appropriate to be quiet when visiting a Catholic Church because Jesus is present in the tabernacle and we want to speak to and listen to Him. We also want to show respect for those who are praying in Church by maintaining an atmosphere of prayerful silence.
(CCC 1185)
19. Young people should develop a habit of personal prayer both in the morning and the	24 +	22 +
evening, encouraged by parents at home and a consistent commitment of prayer in class.	Gathering	Gathering
Personal prayer should be fostered through brief silent meditation, prayer with Scripture,	section in	section in spontaneous prayer, and "listening" to the Holy Spirit.	each lesson.	each lesson.
20. God reveals our personal vocation through the deepest desires of our heart, through the	19	23 circumstances of life, and through conversations with people we trust. Quiet prayer provides the opportunity to recognize that these desires actually originate from God and reveal the manner of serving others that will bring the greatest personal joy and fulfillment. Our personal vocation is the means by which we draw closer to God. A vocation does not just concern the individual person because a vocation involves serving others and building up the Church, the family of God. We should pray for the grace to serve God in our vocation with an undivided heart.
21. Sacred images, statues, saints' pictures, a crucifix, holy water, and the rosary are	13 reminders of God's presence in our lives. Sacred images such as statues, icons and paintings help us to pray. Students should be encouraged to pray before the image of the Sacred Heart of Jesus that is displayed in the classroom. It is important to have these blessed objects in our home and at school to be mindful of God's love for us and His constant presence in our lives. (CCC 478, 1159-1162, 1674, 2132)
22. To visit Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is a proof of gratitude, an expression of love,

Saints

1. Mary watches over us from Heaven with much love. She is a special friend of children
(CCC 495)
2. God the Father chose her to be the Mother of the Savior. God created her "full of	7	24 grace" so that she could become the mother of the Savior (Luke 1:28). (CCC 490).
3. Mary was conceived without original sin (the Immaculate Conception) and grew in	7	24
God's grace in preparation for becoming the Mother of God the Son. Jesus is her Savior, too! (CCC 490-493, 508)
4. Unlike Eve, Mary always said "yes" to God. Therefore we call her the New Eve, the	23	24
"true Mother of all the living". Mary is the perfect disciple of Jesus Christ and our model.
At the wedding feast of Cana, Mary asks Jesus to supply for the needs of the couple.
Mary's words to the stewards also help us: "Do whatever He tells you" (John 2:1-12)
(CCC 2618).
5. Mary offered her prayer to God in response to the words of the Angel Gabriel: "Behold	7	24
I am the handmaid of the Lord; let it be done to me according to your word" (Luke 1:38).
During the course of her earthly life, she loved God so much that she always said yes to Him. Mary never sinned. (CCC 490, 494, 494)
6. Mary is the Mother of Jesus. Jesus is God the Son. Therefore, Mary is the Mother of	23	24
God. Mary was with Jesus when He was crucified, suffering with Him.

7. Jesus gave Mary to us to be our Mother at the foot of the Cross. She is also the Mother of the Church (CCC 963).	23	24
John 19:25-27 "Woman, behold your son. Son, behold your Mother."
8. Jesus gave Mary to us as our Mother to love and care for us. Mary loves us very much. We should love her as Jesus did and pray to her every day for help and guidance. Mary is the perfect "pray-er". We can pray with her and to her. Mary will keep us from sin and lead us to her loving Son and our Savior. (CCC 964, 967-969, 2679)	23	24
9. When Mary's life on earth ended, she was taken up body and soul into Heaven (the Assumption). Mary continues to pray (intercede) for us her children and always leads us to Jesus. "In a wholly singular way she cooperated by her obedience, faith, hope, and burning charity in the Savior's work of restoring supernatural life to souls. For this reason she is a Mother to us in the order of grace" (CCC 968)	23	24
10. It is important to study the life of Mary because she loves Jesus with all her heart. Furthermore, Mary teaches us about Jesus our Savior. We can ask Mary to pray for us as she is the Queen of all saints. Mary never fails those who go to her in prayer. (CCC 2618)	23	24
11. A saint is a person who came to know and love God, lived a life close to Jesus and is united forever with Him in Heaven. Just as we are able to ask friends and family members to pray for us, we can ask the saints in Heaven to pray for us. (CCC See glossary for the definition of a saint, 867, 2030)	23	24
12. The Church canonizes certain saints to present them to us as role models (heroes/heroines). The saints teach us by the example of their lives how to follow Jesus faithfully.	See Partners in Faith throughout text.	See Partners in Faith throughout text.
13. The process by which the Church officially declares someone to be a saint is known as canonization. This process has many stages and usually takes years. The person is first declared a Servant of God, and then is beatified or declared Blessed, before being canonized a saint. A canonized saint is a person who practiced heroic virtue and lived in fidelity to God's grace. In addition, a miracle must have occurred and been declared authentic by the Church. The miracle would have occurred through the action of God but through the intercession of the saint.
14. The Saints want us to be with them in Heaven and they can pray for us as well as our needs. This is because there is a Communion of Saints. The Communion of Saints consists of Christ's disciples who are still pilgrims on earth, those believers who have died and are being purified in Purgatory and the saints who are already with God in Heaven In reading about their lives, we see the example of their faithfulness to Christ. Our greatest happiness is achieved in becoming a saint (CCC 954, 956, 957, 959, 27)	23	24
