

Your hosts along with keynote speaker

Julia Holcomb

Invite you to join them for an inspirational cocktail & hors d'oeuvres reception benefiting

The Veritas Society of Wisconsin Right to Life

a statewide media campaign designed to reduce abortion and renew commitment to the value of life.

Tuesday, September 10, 2013
5:30 - 7:30 p.m.

La Crosse Country Club
300 Marcou Rd.
Onalaska, Wisconsin

RSVP return appreciated by Thursday, Sept. 5, 2013 or call 414.778.5787.

Cocktails and hors d'oeuvres are complimentary.

Julia Holcomb

When Julia Holcomb was sixteen she and a friend contrived to meet Steven Tyler, the lead singer of Aerosmith, and now co-host of American Idol. Holcomb was more successful than she could have imagined. She and Tyler met backstage after a show, and what followed was a passionate and drug-fuelled three-year relationship that nearly culminated in marriage. But the affair eventually spun out of control and ended explosively after Holcomb was pressured into aborting Tyler's unborn child.

For her part, Holcomb has maintained a several decades-long silence, leaving many wondering whatever became of her. But now she has broken her silence, in a brief 5,000-word memoir published by LifeSiteNews.com in cooperation with Rachel's Vineyard Ministries, a ministry for post-abortion healing.

Holcomb's story is at turns astonishing and disturbing - but, for her at least, has a happy ending. Unbelievably, from the young, confused girl who once spent three years living with a rock star, Holcomb has since become a devout and happily-married Catholic mother of seven children - and is fiercely pro-life.

