

SIXTH GRADE: The Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to your protection, implored your help, or sought your intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto you, O Virgin of Virgins, my Mother; to you I come, before you I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in your mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

Praying and focusing on this one prayer throughout the entire year will allow the students to come to know Mary and her special role in God's plan as the Mother of Jesus and our Spiritual Mother. The following resources are meant to foster this process. Please consider implementing one simple aspect each session.

God's love for us

For God so loves each one of us, "that He gave his only Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life." (John 3:16) God prepared a beautiful and sinless Woman to be the Mother of Jesus, our Savior. When Jesus was dying on the Cross for our sins, He gave us Mary, His Mother, to be our Spiritual Mother. Mary wants to lead each of her children to her Son, Jesus. She listens with great love and concern as we speak with her. We can talk with her at any time about anything. This is part of God's plan that we go to Mary.

Why do we want to pray the Memorare daily?

- 1) We want to call to mind the Person of Mary on a daily basis and
- 2) Develop / deepen a relationship with Mary as the Mother of Jesus and our Spiritual Mother and
- 3) Understand that we can go to Mary with our problems, desires, intentions and
- 4) Allow Mary to lead us closer to Jesus.

The Meaning of the Words

- Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary,
Most gracious is the superlative for gracious and means someone who is very compassionate: who loves much, who is willing to help in any way possible, shows kindness and courtesy, is merciful
- that never was it known never means not at any time or place in the entire world.
- that anyone who fled to your protection,
it is to say that anyone who asked Her for protection
- implored your help,
to ask Her to watch over us, to look over us, to keep us safe,
- or sought your intercession

to intercede for us with God – to pray for our intention to God

- was left unaided.

Every person who has asked our Blessed Mother for help has received help. She has never abandoned anyone who has asked for help in such things as coming away from sin, for a particular intention etc.

- Inspired by this confidence,

For this reason, we can be confident that she will also help us.

- I fly unto you, O Virgin of Virgins, my Mother;

We go to Mary quickly for her help at any time. Mary is the most pure one. She is the Spiritual Mother of each person because Jesus gave Her to us and us to Her at the foot of the Cross.

- to you I come, before you I stand, sinful and sorrowful.

We come to Mary as sinners because each person sins. We come to Her sorry for our sins.

- Mother of the Word Incarnate,

The Bible informs us that Jesus is the Word as seen in the Gospel of John 1:1-2: “In the beginning was the Word; the Word was in God’s presence, and the Word was God. He was present to God in the beginning.” And the Word took on flesh, which is the Incarnation.

This is also in John 1:14: “The Word became flesh and made His dwelling among us, and we have seen His glory: The glory of an only Son coming from the Father.”

Therefore, we call Jesus the Word Incarnate. Mary is the Mother of Jesus and therefore Mother of the Word Incarnate.

- despise not my petitions,

I am your child and so please listen to me. The heart of our Blessed Mother is always ready to listen, forgive, and love us. She always hears our prayers

- but in your mercy hear and answer me.

Mary, listen with favor, good will, good disposition. Please give me what I am asking of you. We ask her with great ardor and insistence.

- Amen.

I believe that you will answer me.

Activities for Learning the Words

- Pray the Memorare every day and during each religion session
- Echo prayer– have the young people repeat each phrase after you
- Make flash cards with a phrase of the prayer on each card ; Explain one phrase at a time
- Have the young people write out the prayer
- Encourage parents to pray as a family at home. Invite parents to pray the Memorare with their family to learn the prayer by heart.
- Teach the children how to pray with their heart; not just rattling words. “Prayer is internalized to the extent that we become aware of her ‘to whom we speak.’ In the Memorare, we are speaking with the Blessed Virgin Mary, our spiritual Mother.

- Have the prayer printed out on poster board. Cut out in sections and have the young people match the strips into the right order to make the prayer.
- Make a puzzle using the words of the Memorare; practice putting the puzzle together
- Fill in the blanks of key words of the prayer
- Make a booklet of the Memorare prayer, with a phrase and a picture to be drawn by the young people on each page.
- When teaching about Mary and the meaning of the words of the Memorare, include Sacred Art images. Google Mary, or the Blessed Virgin Mary or something similar. When it opens up then click on Images. It is important to then click on Settings. Then click on Advanced Search and set the usage rights to: free to use, share or modify even commercially. You also will want to choose a higher resolution by clicking on image size and choose larger than 640 x 480. Finally, click on Advanced Search at the bottom right.
- Have the young people act out a skit that portrays the Memorare for younger children.
- After praying the Memorare, allow time for silence so that children may journal regarding their thoughts, feelings, desires, problems, intentions etc.
- Take the young people to Church to pray the Memorare before a statue or stained glass window of Mary and then allow time for silence so that they can speak with Mary.
- Place the one page prayer commitment into a plastic sleeve and tie a small loop of yarn to the top loop. Parents may place the prayer commitment on the child's bedroom door knob in order to use it for prayer times (so it won't be misplaced). A gift, such as a medal and chain or a small statue could be given for incentive to be faithful each day during a period such as Advent. A calendar could be copied on the back of the prayer commitment. This incentive helps children to develop a daily habit of prayer.
- Encourage children to make a request of Mary for a specific need. Give an example from your own life, such as help on a test, for a sick grandmother, rain for the farmers, safe travel in a storm. When a prayer is answered, it makes faith come alive for them and will help the young people to develop a relationship with our Mary. At a time when they have a specific prayer that was answered, it is most helpful for them to share it with the class. We don't want to just ask for good things from Mary with no desire to speak with her and develop a friendship with her. Jesus honored His Mother. We are also called to honor her with a special devotion. (CCC 971)

Learning the Principles

- The Memorare is a Catholic prayer seeking the intercession and help of the Blessed Virgin Mary. It is appropriate to pray at any time, but especially appropriate during times of difficulty or distress.
- Mary is the Mother of Jesus and the Spiritual Mother of each of us. We can turn to Mary and tell her about our problems. She will understand. We can learn from Mary how to be good; to be a disciple (committed follower) of Jesus. She always did what God wanted her to do and she never sinned. If you are tempted to do something wrong, ask Mary to help you, and to pray with and for you. She will pray for you.

- Prayer is a vital necessity. Prayer and Christian life are inseparable. (CCC 2744-2745)
- “Adoration” is the worship that is deserved and rightly offered to God, the Creator, alone. The adoration of Jesus is firmly rooted and grounded within the heart of the Church before any secondary veneration of Mary is progressively inspired and evoked by the Holy Spirit. “Veneration”, that is, the special honor, devotion, reverence, and recognition of excellence we give to Mary, God’s creature, deepens and points us toward a more perfect homage of God Himself. In appreciating and honoring Mary, the masterpiece, we give greater honor and glory to God, the Divine Artist. (See Catechism of the Catholic Church hereafter CCC paragraph 971)
- The Blessed Mother knows and loves all humanity. More profoundly, she loves each one of us individually. Perhaps this can best be pondered and understood in her tender and maternal words spoken to St. Juan Diego under her title of “Our Lady of Guadalupe”. The tone and timbre, the delicate sensitivity, of her caring message to him is meant for each one of us. May we appreciate the strength and gentleness of this message given by her, letting it seep into our minds and hearts as we ponder it frequently and allow it to become our very own:
 “Listen and let it penetrate your heart, do not be troubled or weighed down with grief. Do not fear any illness or vexation, anxiety or pain. Am I not here who am your Mother? Are you not under my shadow and protection? Am I not your fountain of life? Are you not in the folds of my mantle? In the crossing of my arms? Is there anything else you need?”
- The teaching that Mary is our Spiritual Mother is clearly stated in the Dogmatic Constitution on the Church (Lumen Gentium, hereafter LG) from the Second Vatican Council when it declares:
 “Thus, in a wholly singular way she cooperated by her obedience, faith, hope and burning charity in the work of the Savior in restoring supernatural life to souls. For this reason she is a Mother to us in the order of grace.” (LG 61)
- Significantly, this relationship with our heavenly Mother is not “general” or “collective”, in the sense that it is a gift for all humanity, but very personal to each one of us. Pope Saint John Paul II explains:
 Motherhood always establishes a unique and unrepeatable relationship between two people; between mother and child and between child and mother. Even when the same woman is the mother of many children, her personal relationship with each one of them is of the very essence of motherhood. For each child is generated in a unique and unrepeatable way. (Mother of the Redeemer, no. 45)
- The following Church teachings on Mary are available in one-page handouts at the Diocesan website: <http://diolc.org/evangelization/questions/>
  - Mary as Mother of God
  - The Immaculate Conception
  - The Perpetual Virginity of Mary
  - The Assumption of Mary into Heaven, Body and Soul

Spiritual Comprehension – Do they understand?

- Ask questions to ensure that young people understand the meaning of the words.
- This one prayer is the prayer the children should know by heart and with good understanding before they advance to the next grade level. Therefore it should be prayed at every opportunity. Please continue to teach the other prayers as listed in the Diocesan Religion Curriculum for Sixth Grade that are to be introduced at this age level.

Encountering Our Blessed Mother Mary in Prayer

- Pray the Memorare aloud and have young people listen, preferably with their eyes closed. Have them take notice of a word or phrase that stood out for them. Allow some time of silence for the children to think about why the word or phrase stood out for them. Allowing them quiet time to reflect on the phrases of the Memorare, after they have received explanation of each phrase, takes it to the next level of a deep personal encounter. As a further progression, provide silence so that young people may have a “heart-to-heart” conversation with Mary.

Scriptural Passages on Mary’s Role in God’s Plan for Salvation

- Mary is our Spiritual Mother. The principal Scriptural basis for the doctrine of Mary as Spiritual Mother of all humanity is found in John 19:26-27: “When Jesus saw His mother, and the disciple whom He loved standing near, He said to his mother, ‘Woman, behold, your son.’ Then he said to the disciple, ‘Behold, your mother’”. The “beloved disciple” in this Scriptural passage is John. The beloved disciple John is a symbol of all humanity and, in a special way, of every person who likewise seeks to be a “beloved disciple” of Jesus. This has been confirmed throughout history, including Pope Saint John Paul II who expresses “Mary’s motherhood as a personal gift which Christ gives to John, and beyond John to every individual.” (Mother of the Redeemer, no. 23, 45; italics added)

Resources

- YouTube video of the Memorare sung by Danielle Rose with pictures of Mary (3 minutes 50 seconds) Sing along.

The origin of the Memorare

The prayer was first popularized by Fr. Claude Bernard (1588-1641). Fr. Claude Bernard, known as the "Poor Priest", tirelessly dedicated his life to the preaching and aiding of prisoners and criminals condemned to death. Placing those in his care under the protection of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Fr. Bernard prayed the Memorare extensively in his work of evangelization to great effect. Many of the criminals came to know and love God through his efforts. He also distributed over 200,000 leaflets printed with the Memorare in various languages so that people would seek the intercession of Mary. The Memorare is known to be part of a much longer 15th century prayer.