INVESTIGATION INTO POSSIBLE GROUNDS FOR NULLITY

1. Has the respondent entered another marriage?_____ If so, give the name of the new spouse, date, and place of the marriage.

2. (The priest should explain the nature of an oath and then ask): Do you swear to tell the truth to the following questions? _____

3. Were there any serious differences or problems during the period of courtship? _____ If so, please explain.

4. What was the main reason that you and the respondent had for getting married?
 - a) Did both of you marry of your own free will? _____ If not, please explain.

 - b) Was any force used, such as threats or physical force? _____ If yes, please explain.

 - c) If there was a premarital pregnancy, did this fact have any serious influence on your decision or the respondent's decision to marry? Please explain.

5. Were you and the respondent related in any way? _____ If so, please explain.

6. Were you or the respondent ever in a religious order (priest, sister, brother)? _____ If so, please explain.

7. Prior to and at the end of the time of the marriage to the respondent, did each of you want to have a child at least some time during the marriage? _____ If not, please explain.

8. Within the marriage, did you and the respondent ever have sexual intercourse without the use of contraceptives? _____ If contraceptives were always used, give the reasons why.

9. Is there any indication that either you or the respondent simply "went through the motions" of getting married, that is, without ever really intending to live up to the expectations of marriage? _____ If so, please explain.

10. At the time of the marriage, did each of you intend to enter a permanent union? _____ If not, please explain.

- a) Prior to the marriage, did either you or the respondent make any statements or agreements about a possible divorce? _____ If so, please explain.
11. At the time of the marriage, did each of you intend to be faithful to the other for life? _____ If not, please explain.
12. Is there any indication that either you or the respondent was psychologically or emotionally incapable of carrying out the responsibilities of marriage? If so, please explain.
- a) If psychiatric treatment and/or hospitalization occurred, give details and dates.
- b) Was there any evidence of these psychological or emotional problems before the marriage? _____ Please explain.
13. What were the main problems of the marriage? When did these problems begin?
14. What caused the final breakup of the marriage?
15. A declaration of nullity in the Catholic Church is a judgement that some essential quality of a true marriage relationship was missing from the beginning, and that consequently, it was not a valid marriage. Do you think your marriage to the respondent was a valid marriage? _____ If no, why not?
16. Before the breakup, did either of you consult a priest or marriage counselor? _____ If so, give names and addresses of such professional people.

17. Your former spouse must be contacted and given the opportunity to participate in this case. What do you think the reaction of your former spouse will be?
18. Give the names and complete address of YOUR parents, including mother's maiden name.
19. Give the names and complete address of the RESPONDENT'S parents, including mother's maiden name.
20. In what parish are you, if Catholic, and/or your present spouse or fiancé(e) registered as members?
