

"The seeds we sow today through our generosity will yield a rich harvest for future generations in our Church."

