Week 1. The Gospel of Luke – Reading Schedule

Reflect on a short passage of Scripture each day from the Gospel of Luke, 5 days a week. This Gospel was addressed to an individual named Theophilus and broadly aimed at a Greek/Gentile audience focusing on Jesus as the compassionate Savior for all people.

Notice what is causing unrest in your heart. As you become aware, identify what it is and acknowledge it honestly to Jesus, asking for the help of His Presence and Truth here. Wait patiently. Notice when Jesus "touches" by word or image that area of stress or worry, causing it to diminish and bringing you His peace.
Jot down a characteristic of Jesus based on what He says or does in the passage each day.

Day 1 – Announcement of the Birth of John. Introduction Luke 1: 1-25.
(The first number is the chapter; the other numbers are verses.)

Day 2 – Announcement of the Birth of Jesus. The Visit of Mary to Elizabeth. Luke 1: 26-45

Day 3 – Mary's Canticle of praise to God. Luke 1: 46-80

Day 4 – Birth of Jesus. Luke 2: 1-21

Day 5 – Presentation of Jesus in the Temple. Luke 2: 22-40

Week 2. The Gospel of Luke – Reading Schedule

Reflect on a short passage of Scripture each day from the Gospel of Luke, 5 days a week.

Notice what is causing unrest in your heart. As you become aware, identify what it is and acknowledge it honestly to Jesus, asking for the help of His Presence and Truth here. Wait patiently. Notice when Jesus "touches" by word or image that area of stress or worry, causing it to diminish and bringing you His peace.
Jot down a characteristic of Jesus based on what He says or does in the passage each day.
(For example: Jesus is patient, or compassionate or attentive)

Day 1 – The Finding in the Temple. Luke 2: 41-52

Day 2 – John the Baptizer. Luke 3: 1-38

Day 3 – Temptation in the Desert. Luke 4: 1-30

Day 4 – Jesus Teaches in Capernaum. Luke 4: 31-44

Day 5 – Call of the First Disciples. Luke 5: 1-16

Week 3. The Gospel of Luke – Reading Schedule

Reflect on a short passage of Scripture each day from the Gospel of Luke, 5 days a week.

Notice what is causing unrest in your heart. As you become aware, identify what it is and acknowledge it honestly to Jesus, asking for the help of His Presence and Truth here. Wait patiently. Notice when Jesus "touches" by word or image that area of stress or worry, causing it to diminish and bringing you His peace.
Jot down a characteristic of Jesus based on what He says or does in the passage each day.

Day 1 – A Paralyzed Man Cured. Luke 5: 17-39

Day 2 – The Disciples and the Sabbath. Luke 6: 1-16

Day 3 – The Great Discourse. Luke 6: 17-49

Day 4 – Cure of the Centurion's Servant. Luke 7: 1-28

Day 5 – John's Baptism. Luke 7: 29-50

Week 4. The Gospel of Luke – Reading Schedule

Reflect on a short passage of Scripture each day from the Gospel of Luke, 5 days a week.

Notice what is causing unrest in your heart. As you become aware, identify what it is and acknowledge it honestly to Jesus, asking for the help of His Presence and Truth here. Wait patiently. Notice when Jesus "touches" by word or image that area of stress or worry, causing it to diminish and bringing you His peace.
Jot down a characteristic of Jesus based on what He says or does in the passage each day.

Day 1 – The Women Who Served. Luke 8: 1-25

Day 2 - Jairus' Child; a Hemorrhage Victim. Luke 8: 26-56

Day 3 - Mission of the Twelve. Luke 9: 1-27

Day 4 - Jesus Transfigured. Luke 9: 28-62

Day 5 - Mission of the Seventy-two. Luke 10: 1-24

Week 5. The Gospel of Luke – Reading Schedule

Reflect on a short passage of Scripture each day from the Gospel of Luke, 5 days a week.

Notice what is causing unrest in your heart. As you become aware, identify what it is and acknowledge it honestly to Jesus, asking for the help of His Presence and Truth here. Wait patiently. Notice when Jesus "touches" by word or image that area of stress or worry, causing it to diminish and bringing you His peace.
Jot down a characteristic of Jesus based on what He says or does in the passage each day.

Day 1 – The Good Samaritan. Luke 10: 25-42

Day 2 – The Our Father. Luke 11: 1-26

Day 3 – True Happiness. Luke 11: 27-54

Day 4 - Courage under Persecution. Luke 12: 1-34

Day 5 - Preparedness for the Master's Return. Luke 12: 35-59

Week 6. The Gospel of Luke – Reading Schedule

Reflect on a short passage of Scripture each day from the Gospel of Luke, 5 days a week.

Notice what is causing unrest in your heart. As you become aware, identify what it is and acknowledge it honestly to Jesus, asking for the help of His Presence and Truth here. Wait patiently. Notice when Jesus "touches" by word or image that area of stress or worry, causing it to diminish and bringing you His peace.
Jot down a characteristic of Jesus based on what He says or does in the passage each day.

Day 1 – Providential Calls to Penance. Luke 13: 1-21

Day 2 – The Narrow Door. Luke 13: 22-35

Day 3 – Cure and a Lesson in Humility. Luke 14: 1-35

Day 4 – Parable of Divine Mercy. Luke 15: 1-32

Day 5 – Right Use of Money. Luke 16: 1-31

Week 7. The Gospel of Luke – Reading Schedule

Reflect on a short passage of Scripture each day from the Gospel of Luke, 5 days a week.

Notice what is causing unrest in your heart. As you become aware, identify what it is and acknowledge it honestly to Jesus, asking for the help of His Presence and Truth here. Wait patiently. Notice when Jesus "touches" by word or image that area of stress or worry, causing it to diminish and bringing you His peace.
Jot down a characteristic of Jesus based on what He says or does in the passage each day.

Day 1 – Four Sayings of Jesus. Luke 17: 1-37

Day 2 – Jesus and the Children; a Rich Man. Luke 18: 1-43

Day 3 – Zacchaeus and the Tax Collector. Luke 19: 1-27

Day 4 – Messianic Entry into Jerusalem. Luke 19: 28-47

Day 5 - The Authority of Jesus. Luke 20: 1-26

Week 8. The Gospel of Luke – Reading Schedule

Reflect on a short passage of Scripture each day from the Gospel of Luke, 5 days a week.

Notice what is causing unrest in your heart. As you become aware, identify what it is and acknowledge it honestly to Jesus, asking for the help of His Presence and Truth here. Wait patiently. Notice when Jesus "touches" by word or image that area of stress or worry, causing it to diminish and bringing you His peace.
Jot down a characteristic of Jesus based on what He says or does in the passage each day.

Day 1 - Resurrection of the Dead. Luke 20: 27-47

Day 2 - The Widow's Mite. Luke 21: 1-38

Day 3 - The Holy Eucharist. Luke 22: 1-38

Day 4 - The Passion, Death and Burial of Jesus. Luke 22: 39-71

Day 5 - Jesus before Pilate. Luke 23: 1-25

Week 9. The Gospel of Luke – Reading Schedule

Reflect on a short passage of Scripture each day from the Gospel of Luke, 5 days a week.

Notice what is causing unrest in your heart. As you become aware, identify what it is and acknowledge it honestly to Jesus, asking for the help of His Presence and Truth here. Wait patiently. Notice when Jesus "touches" by word or image that area of stress or worry, causing it to diminish and bringing you His peace.
Jot down a characteristic of Jesus based on what He says or does in the passage each day.

Day 1 - Jesus Dies on the Cross. Luke 23: 26-56

Day 2 - The Women at the Tomb. Luke 24: 1-12

Day 3 - Two Disciples Meet the Risen Christ. Luke 24: 13-35

Day 4 - Jesus Appears to the Eleven. Luke 24: 36-53